

Working With My Hands

Pamela Cardullo Ortiz

1. Got A's in all my sub-jects, I always do the best I can,
 2. I went and got my mast-er's, You know I got my P - h - D,
 3. These hands are good for writ- ing, I tell a stor - y with my pen,
 4. These hands are good for paint- ing, I paint a can-vas beau-ti - fully,
 5. Now I've be-come a sur-geon, My hands are suit-ed to this art,

5

Got A's in all my sub-jects, I al - ways do the best I can,
 I went and got my mast-er's, You know I got my P - h - D,
 These hands are good for writ- ing, I tell a stor - y with my pen,
 These hands are good for paint- ing, They paint a canv-as beau-ti - fully,
 Now I've be-come a surg-eon, My hands are suit-ed to this art,

9

But that high school guid-ance coun-selor Told me I should be work-ing with my
 So if it's a special-ist you be need - ing, Honey, you can come_ to_
 And if this book I'm wri - ting does well, Maybe they'll give me that Pull - itz - er a -
 But if you can't af - ford to buy one, You can see it at the gall - er -
 Well, baby I could do a trans-plant, But I could ne - ver healyour

12

ha - nis
me. (To refrain).
gain.
- y. (To refrain).
heart (To refrain).

Refrain: I work with my hands, these hands are worth a - lot, With 16

pen or brush or scalp-el but the trea - sure that I got is right be tween the ears, Lord, I got a might-y

20

brain, But if I'd listen - ed to you counsel - or 23

I'd have thrown it right down the drain.